Don't blame your age for poor hearing

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone answering this advertisement.

True, all hearing problems are not alike . . . and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this non-operating model now. Wear it in the privacy of your own home to see how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free. The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 9922, Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria St., Chicago, Ill. 60646.

PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The staff of the Virginia State Water Control Board will hold two public hearings to receive comments on a Water Quality Management Plan for the Upper James River Basin. These hearings are scheduled for Monday, December 20, 1976 at 7:30 p.m. in Lexington at Moody Hall (this is located at the south end of the parade ground, opposite to the barracks at the Letcher Avenue entrance to the campus of Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Virginia.); and for Tuesday, December 21, 1976 at 7:30 p.m. in Charlottesville at the Piedmont Virginia Community College auditorium. (Please use the Student Parking Lot and enter the building via the door adjacent to this lot.) In addition to the independent cities contained in the respective areas, the Upper James Watershed includes the counties of Amelia, Cumberland, Buckingham, Fluvanna, Albemarle, Nelson, Amherst, Rockbridge, Bath, and Alleghany. The watershed also includes substantial portions of Highland, Craig, Botetourt, Bedford, Augusta, Appomattox, Prince Edward, Nottoway, Powhatan, and Goochland counties, as well as small portions of Giles, Montgomery, Roanoke, Campbell, Louisa, Orange, and Greene counties. A very small fraction of the basin lies in West Virginia.

The river basin plan is authorized by Section 303(e) of U. S. Public Law 92-500, the Federal Water Pollution Control Act Amendments of 1972. Furthermore, Section 62.1-44.15(13) of the State Water Control Law authorizes the Board to establish policies and programs for effective area-wide or basin-wide water quality control and management. The purpose of this plan is to analyze the effects of the various feasible alternative wastewater control strategies on the overall water quality of the basin streams and on the overall socioeconomic welfare in the basin area. Possible alternative wastewater management strategies include control of surface water runoff at the source, wastewater treatment, and curtailment of water use by such measures as recycling.

The plan is documented as follows: 1) a report of the Upper James River Basin 303(e) Plan, including engineering investigation and analysis of the water quality of the basin, and 2) a fact sheet which summarizes the 303(e) Plan.

The engineering report is Part Two of Volume V-A of the State Water Control Board Comprehensive Water Resources Plan for the James Basin, and is also designated as Planning Bulletin 217C. The report and the summary are available for inspection at the Piedmont Regional Office, 4010 West Board Street, Richmond, Virginia 23230; or at the West Central Regional Office, 5306-A Peters Creek Road, Roanoke, Virginia 24019; or at the Valley Regional Office, 116 North Main Street, Bridgewater, Virginia 22812. Copies of the fact sheets are available upon request from the Piedmont Regional Office.

Interested persons may submit written comments on or before December 31, 1976. Anyone wishing to testify at the hearing is requested to make a copy of his statement available for entering into the hearing record.

Requests, comments, and questions may be addressed to Mr. Jim Hensley, P. O. Box 11143, Richmond, Virginia 23230. 11-18-1t
